01 OUR STORY

Nestled among the pristine hills of Tehri, Clemora Estate is a rare treasure amid lush nature. Crafted with intention, this residential estate is where modern living and timeless elegance meet effortlessly.

Here impeccably designed villas and cottages seamlessly integrate vast orchards and blossoming gardens with horizons framed by mountains. The estate is more than a residential destination offering contemporary comforts and premium amenities, it is a space where community builds lasting connections.

At Clemora Estate, daily life feels elevated, balanced and serene. It is not only an address to call home, but a place where you belong.

Discover a life of harmony, quality and distinction at Clemora Estate.

FOUNDER'S VISION

Mr. Atul Vashisth
FOUNDER & CEO

Our vision is to redefine living spaces by blending innovative architecture with the vitality of nature. With over 35 years of legacy from Samak Landscape, we craft homes that serve as sanctuaries for body, mind and soul.

Through biophilic design, native plant integration and sustainable technologies, Clemora offers homes enriched by natural light, clean air and tranquility. We are setting new standards for sustainable, nature-integrated living.

CLEMORA ESTATE

INDIA'S FIRST GARDEN-CENTRIC RESIDENCES

At Clemora Estate the garden is not an afterthought, it is the heart of our design.

India's first branded residences built around gardens celebrate nature at every step. Each home is surrounded by layered green zones: flowering borders, fruiting trees, shaded groves and hidden nooks with lily ponds and forest-inspired pockets. Fragrance, texture, color and sound come together to create living sanctuaries that evolve with the seasons.

Our legacy in creating India's finest landscapes means you inherit more than a home. You inherit a living garden legacy.

THE BOTANICAL MASTERY

The soul of the project lies in its landscape. Long before the cottages, the vision began in the soil.

We've gone beyond traditional gardening, importing iconic species like Japanese Maples, Camellias and Hydrangea hybrids to create a living palette of colors and textures. Our rotating orchestra of perennials and annuals ensures year-round vibrancy.

This isn't just landscaping. It's a curated natural experience, making Clemora Estate a botanical canvas unlike any other in India.

COTTAGES IN HARMONY

Every villa is immersed within nature's grandeur. The landscape doesn't surround the cottages, it defines them.

From alpine foliage to flower-studded trails, every corner has been designed to engage the senses. Rare, climate-adapted species thrive in Tehri's microclimate, turning your home into a living garden sanctuary.

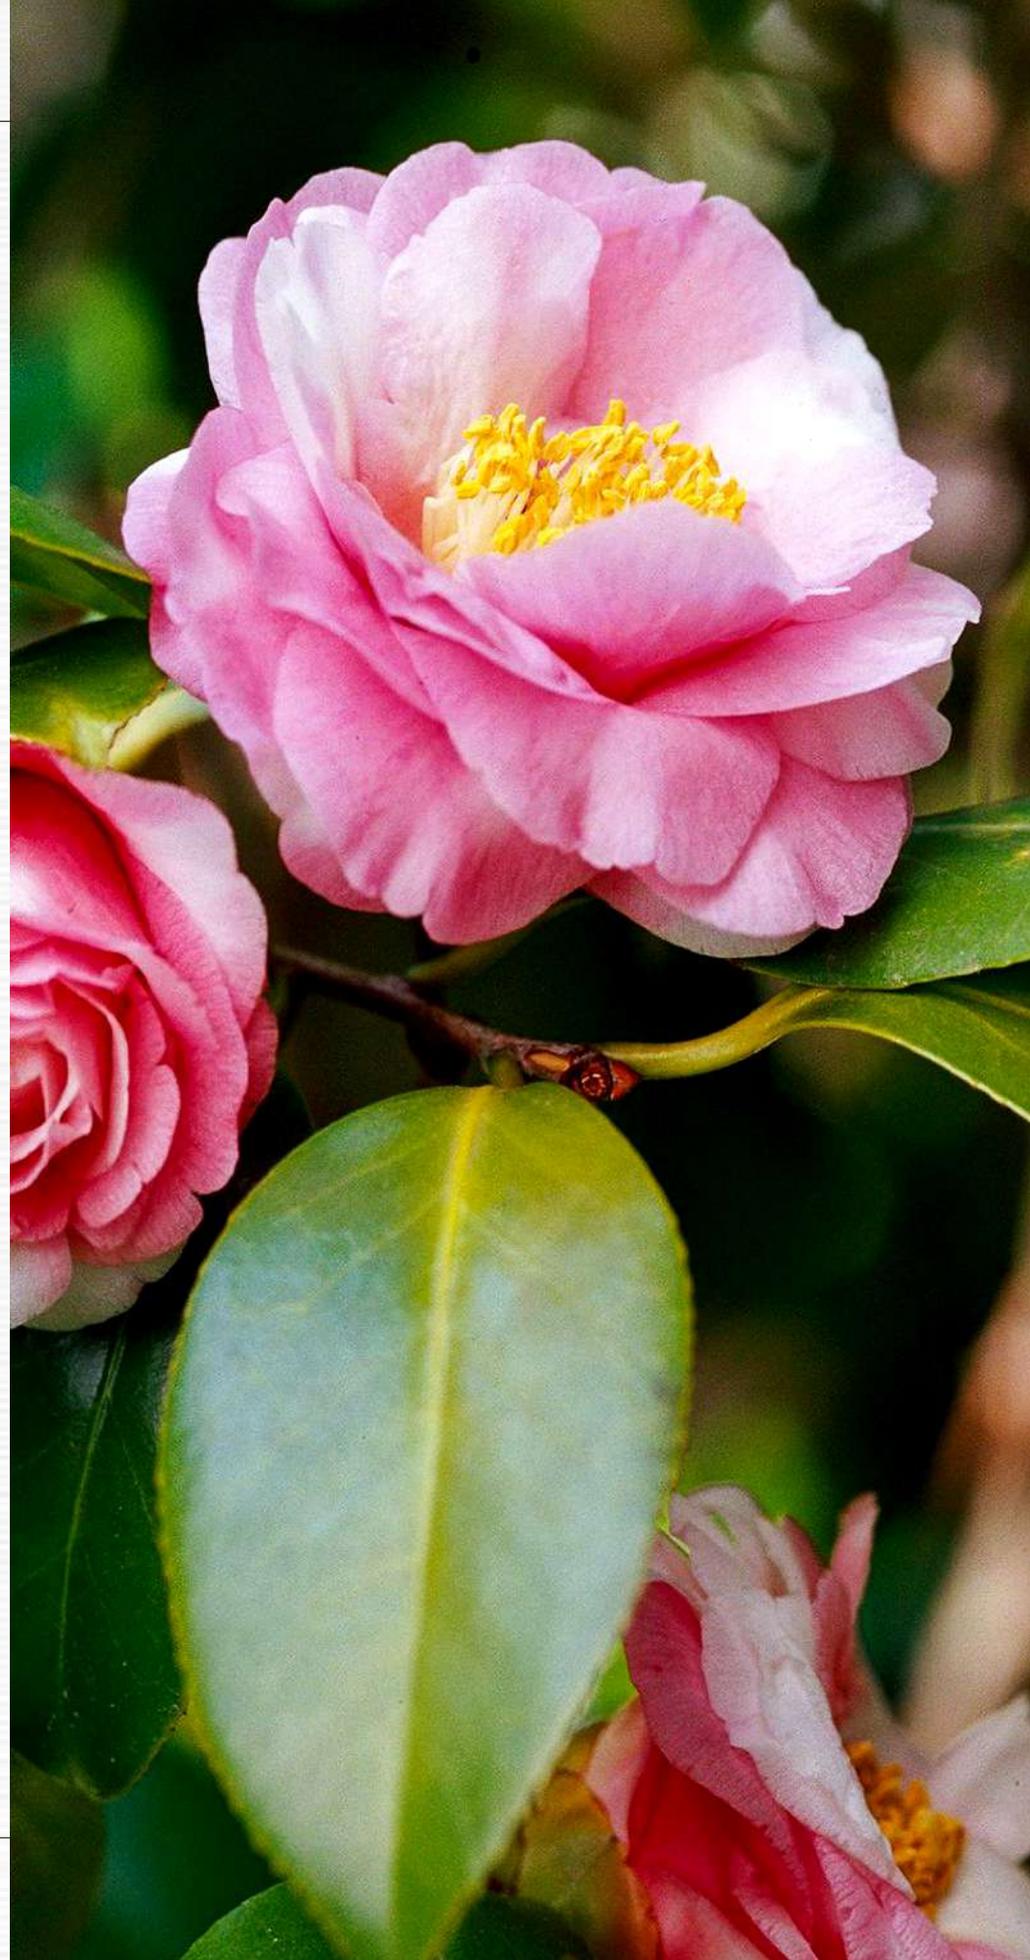

*C*urated gardens alive with native flora invite butterflies, adding a sense of colour, grace, and living beauty throughout your home.

*S*tep into a tranquil garden layered with vibrant perennials, camellias, lush conifers, and fruit trees each element coming together to create a living, breathing landscape.

A private kitchen garden that nurtures fresh, seasonal produce, inviting you to harvest your own fruits and vegetables and experience the quiet luxury of farm-to-table dining at home.

Explore the untouched beauty of Tehri's natural wonders, from serene lakes and lush forests to majestic mountains and hidden trails waiting to be discovered.*

At Clemora, the surrounding landscape transforms with the rhythm of the seasons.

*Four Seasons.

Nature-Rooted Design -

At Clemora, design begins with the land. Biophilic architecture blurs the line between indoors and outdoors, while earth-first practices and sustainable materials ensure our homes sit gently within their natural surroundings, enhancing both comfort and environmental responsibility.

Modern Heritage -

As a family-owned venture, Clemora carries forward intergenerational knowledge, values, and craftsmanship, thoughtfully reinterpreted through a modern lens to create homes with lasting meaning.

Wellness & Restoration -

At Clemora, wellness is woven into everyday living. From quiet walks and open landscapes to thoughtfully curated wellness experiences and retreats, the environment invites you to slow down, restore, and reconnect with yourself and nature.

Culture & Community -

At Clemora, culture is lived and shared. From artist residencies and creative retreats to locally rooted experiences, we want to foster a sense of community while supporting artisans, makers, and small businesses that reflect the spirit of the region.
